Re: New Jersey Sports Productions, Inc.
v. Panos Eliades, et al.
Civil Action No.: 06 CV 1509 (HB) – Status Report

Dear Judge Baer:

MEMO ENDORSED

By endorsed memo of September 10, 2007, the Court requested that we file an additional status report by December 24. Kindly accept this letter as that status report. A copy of our prior status report, dated September 6, with your endorsement, is annexed for easy reference.

Sadly not all Courts are as expeditious with their dockets as is Your Honor. As of this writing all written submissions in the Nevada case were completed over six months ago. Our inquiries disclose that the case is not scheduled for oral argument (granted in only a minority of cases), however we have no way of knowing how close the Nevada Supreme Court may be to issuing a decision. A decision could be imminent or not and we simply have no way of ascertaining that fact. Opinions are issued, generally, on a weekly basis and the sole reason that we delayed making this report was that pursuant to schedule, opinions were released today. The underlying case was not among them.

We have a suggestion. Both parties agree that the value of this instant case, and indeed, whether it should proceed, is dependent upon the result of the Nevada Supreme Court. While the Nevada Supreme Court would not be likely to answer an attorney as to how close it is to rendering a decision, I hope that this would not be so for another Judge who is attempting to manage his own docket. Thus perhaps the Court could consider placing a call to the Chief Judge of the Nevada Supreme Court to inquire as to the expected time for a resolution?

We know that this status report will be unsatisfying to the Court since we could not develop more specific information. However, it is accurate in its indefiniteness.

Respectfully submitted,

My view is that the matter will be dismissed with due prejudice and off my docket come April 15, should you choose to share this (I wouldn't bet on it making much difference) with the Nevada Court you are welcome to do so.
